

Aging Out
Viewer Worksheet (Use back if needed)

1. Outline the experiences that the young adults in the film had or resources that were available to them that were helpful in order to transition them to adulthood and independent living?

2. What were some of the negative experiences or lack of resources that were not helpful in transitioning the young adults?

3. After viewing the film, what do you think you might do as a foster parent to help foster youth as they exit from the child welfare system?

Would you recommend this film to other foster parents?
